

I want my XM Traffic and Weather. I get access to the information I want, when I want it and because it is a subscription service I am paying for it. To get the same information on tv or radio i must endure endless advertisements that are the reason I don't like radio.